

The Mersey Beatles video transcript

[Audio: a series of songs from The Beatles throughout].

A clip shows the band on stage, text on screen appears that reads 'The Mersey Beatles'

Throughout the video, a series of clips play showing the band singing different songs from The Beatles on stage. We see the crowd singing and dancing.

As the series of clips play, text on screen reads 'Liverpool's fab four are back...' followed by more text that reads 'With their sensational world-wide smash hit show'.

'The best Beatles tribute band around – The British Beatles Fan Club'.

Vox pops have then been filmed with customers after the show. A man speaks to the camera and says, 'The show was absolutely amazing.'

We then see two ladies; one says to camera 'They was just brilliant and when they came out as sergeant peppers well that was it. Blew me away.'

Text on screen reads 'They absolutely nail the sound of the Beatles – Julia Baird – John Lennon's sister'.

More vox pops have then been filmed with customers after the show. A man and woman are stood in front of the camera, the gentleman says, 'They're the closest you're going to get to the fab four'.

Another man and woman are speaking to the camera, the lady says, 'It was absolutely fantastic'. The gentleman then says, 'It was a brilliant night, we were dancing, we were singing'. The lady then says, 'They were so, so good'.

As the clips play of the band on stage, text on screen appears that reads 'Get your tickets now!'

The promotional artwork appears on screen, with text that reads 'The Mersey Beatles' and shows the band looking out towards a crowd of people.
