

The Makings of a Murderer 2 video transcript

A series of clips play as we hear a flashing and clicking noise of a camera. Images of cars, crime scenes and individuals appear quickly on screen.

Text on screen then appears that reads 'entertainers presents'.

We then see a clip of Colin stood on stage, staring ahead.

The screen goes dark, and text appears that reads 'Senior investigations officer Colin Sutton'.

We then see a series of clips showing different images of CCTV footage and well known criminals.

The next clip is of Colin on stage, talking to the audience.

A sign then appears on screen with text that reads 'In loving memory Amelie Delagrang 2.2.82-19.8.04'.

The promotional artwork then appears on screen. Text reads 'The Makings of a Murderer 2. The Real Manhunter with Senior Investigative Officer Colin Sutton who caught serial killer, Levi Bellfield.

The screen then switches to more text that reads 'Tickets now on sale'.

[Voiceover throughout by Colin Sutton]

I'm Colin Sutton. I was the senior investigating officer in the Metropolitan police for more than nine years. I worked on dozens of murder investigations including some of the most complex serious and shocking crimes of our generation. These crimes are just so far beyond the comprehension of normal people that they are truly shocking. This is The Makings of a Murderer 2. The Real Manhunter. We'll be touring UK theatres from this September.
