

Into The Groove-Transcript

Female singer appears on screen with two backing dancers and a band. The singer strikes a resemblance to a young Madonna, with various clips of her singing and dancing along to her famous song 'Into the Groove.'

Clip of drummer appears on screen.

Female singer appears on screen again with two backing dancers and a band, this time dressed in a gold outfit singing the song Vogue by Madonna. There are various close and wide shots of her performing this song.

Female singer appears on screen again with two backing dancers and a band, dressed in a cardigan and skirt singing the song Papa Don't Preach by Madonna. There are various close and wide shots of her performing this song.

Female singer appears on screen again with two backing dancers and a band, dressed in a blue skirt and top, singing the song Hung Up by Madonna. There are various close and wide shots of her performing this song.

Female singer appears on screen again with two backing dancers and a band, dressed in a nun's outfit singing the song Prayer by Madonna. There are various close and wide shots of her performing this song.

Text appears on screen "Into the Groove."

Text appears on screen "entertainers."

--ENDS--