

Beyond the Barricade: Trailer

[Audio: dramatic music plays in the background throughout the trailer]

A black background with four figures silhouetted in front of rays of white, red and blue light that shines from the centre. Large white text appears saying 'Beyond the Barricade' followed by smaller blue text below that reads 'The Musical Theatre Concert Tour.'

The text fades away to reveal a smoky stage that is lit from above by seven spotlights. Four performers are on the stage, including one behind a keyboard. The following text is displayed:

★★★★★ "SPINE-TINGLING!" Stuff, New Zealand.

A black screen with a white light in the top righthand corner and the words 'Beyond The Barricade' in the top left hand corner. In the centre of the screen the following text is displayed: '2025 UK Tour. The UK's Longest Running Musical Theatre Tour. 26th Year.'

An object can be seen floating across the screen. The text changes to read: '2025 UK Tour. Featuring Past Principal Performers FROM LES MISERABLES. 26th year.'

Footage of a backlit stage with the spotlight on a male performer. A close-up colour circular image of a man's face is featured on the centre of the screen and the name 'David Fawcett' is written below.

The footage of the stage shifts with white and blue spotlights now lighting up a female performer with fair hair. A close-up circular image of a woman's face is featured in the centre of the screen and the name 'Sarah Ryan' is written below.

The spotlights on the stage change to light up a woman with dark hair. A close-up circular image of a woman's face is featured in the centre of the screen and the name 'Katie Leeming' is written below.

The footage of the stage changes again to light up a male performer with dark hair. A close-up circular image of a man's face is featured on the centre of the screen and the name 'Andy Reiss' is written below.

The video cuts to focus on a woman in a ballgown who is singing into a microphone. The camera then pans out to reveal a man singing into a microphone and facing her, with other performers on the stage in the background. The names of famous musicals appear on the screen around them: 'The Phantom of the Opera,' 'Miss Saigon,' 'Hamilton,' and 'Blood Brothers.'

The video cuts again to show the four lead performers on stage with backing singers and musicians behind them. As the footage focuses on individual performers, more musical titles appear on the screen: 'Come From Away,' 'The Lion King,' 'Jesus Christ Superstar,' 'Les Misérables'

The video cuts again to show the four lead performers with silhouettes of the crowds clapping and cheering in the foreground.

An image of a packed theatre with the four lead performers on stage and background singers and musicians behind them.

An image of two male performers in suits and waistcoats and two female reporters in formal dresses standing together. The background is black with a band of white and orange smoke across the centre. Along the bottom of the screen, in blue text, is the website address 'www.beyondthebarricade.com' and social media handle '@btbarricade.'

ENDS